Questions and Answers

Question 1:	Can one individual (organization) submit multiple applications for other TCDD Requests for Applications (RFAs)?
Answer:	Yes, an organization may submit applications for multiple TCDD RFAs. One organization can have up to three grant-funded projects at any one time.
Question 2:	What are any special considerations for projects in this epidemic state of society?
Answer:	Applications may address new realities that are a result of the COVID-19 pandemic. However, applications that address the pandemic will not receive special consideration. Strong applications will detail how they will achieve the outcomes and outputs set forth in the RFA, and this may or may not include activities in response to COVID-19.
Question 3:	If an organization were to submit a viable proposal in an amount lower than $175,000, would it be given consideration?
Answer:	Yes. All eligible applications with a proposed budget of up to $175,000 will be considered.
Question 4:	When will the grant awardees be informed?
Answer:	TCDD anticipates notifying applicants about decisions following TCDD's August 2020 Council Meeting. Review dates are subject to change.
Question 5:	When does the grant year start?
Answer:	Eligible applications will be reviewed at the August 2020 Council meeting. The anticipated start of the awarded grants is approximately two to six months after approval by the Council.
